LAMONT

In Praise of Hands

Alexander Lamont's furniture, lighting, accessories and wall-coverings are an expression of his dedication to meticulous workmanship, rare materials and an aesthetic taste refined by a life lived between Europe and Asia.

Evident in every piece are hard-won and highly prized skills and techniques inspired by the decorative arts of Europe and Japan of the early twentieth century: translucent raw shagreen and parchment, slivers of straw marquetry, deep layers of natural lacquer, hand patinated bronze and luminous gold combine to bring to life Alexander Lamont's designs. By reviving the great craft traditions of the past in his own workshops and applying the luxuries of time and skill to organic and contemporary designs, Lamont creates vital elements that dwell in the margin between art and furniture.

"I am interested in the meeting point between natural materials, form and time. The resulting pieces contain a vibrancy of surface born of the hours, hands and eyes that nourished them".

Offer

Jewels from the Workshop

'Couture' is Alexander Lamont's collection of limited-edition furniture, lighting and artwork. Complex in construction, sculptural in form and layered in texture, the pieces embody a passion for materials and meticulous workmanship.

Organic Beauty

'Editions' is the curated collection of decorative objects, accessories and lighting elements designed by Alexander Lamont. Raw, natural, organic forms are cast in bronze, cut from pigmented jade, swathed in shagreen and natural lacquer and lined with pure gold.

Elemental Spaces

Le Mur collection brings crafted excellence to vertical surfaces in the form of two iconic materials – shagreen and straw marquetry – hand-applied to rigid wall panels. The finished result are surfaces that resonate with the traditions of the past and a certain quality of tone and texture that calls out to be touched and admired.

Ritual

Alexander Lamont's workshop houses craft ateliers developed over a period of twelve years for shagreen, parchment, lacquer, eggshell lacquer, gesso, straw marquetry, gold leaf and bronze finishing.

Bringing world-renowned experts over from Europe to train his team of artisans, Alexander has refined and innovated the traditional methods for working with his chosen materials, and he continues to experiment in the search for new finishes and techniques.

The work of artisans therefore forms an integral part of each one of Alexander Lamont's pieces. With the design studio located above the workshops, Alexander has daily contact with the artisans, and the designs emerge from an ongoing dialogue between designer and artisan in the exploration and innovation of materials.

In each piece the highest quality is achieved through patient and methodical work made vital by the human hand.

Partnership

Alexander Lamont has worked with world-renowned designers such as Peter Marino, David Collins, Andrew Winch, Bill Sofield, Yabu Pushelberg and Jaya Ibrahim sharing his material expertise and technical know-how to create rare and innovative store furnishings for brands such as Louis Vuitton and Chanel, limited edition furniture for Baker, and unique decorative elements for hotel projects such as the Setai in Miami and the Connaught Hotel in London.

Alexander Lamont's in-depth knowledge of his materials, his sensibility to the aesthetic vision of today's seminal designers, and his understanding of the price and delivery-sensitive interiors market make him a sought-after partner for some of the world's leading interiors projects.
